UNSTOPPABLE

Luke 1:37

"FOR WITH GOD NOTHING SHALL BE IMPOSSIBLE"

God's love for us is unstoppable and that's why he gave His only begotten son to save us.

Likewise, His thoughts for us are unstoppable too, like it says in Ps 139:17,18; the sum of them would outnumber the grains of sand.

In 2 Kings 4:1-7 when a widow comes to Elisha for help, he asks her a very important question, "Tell me what do you have in your house?" Then he asks her to go around and get some empty jars from all her neighbors.

The widow gave Him the little oil that she had (which according to her was insignificant) and, as always, he multiplies it to become "more than enough".

The oil from her jar never stopped pouring until the jars they had gathered got over. It's the same in our lives too. As long as we are available to him he will continue to fill us. The outpouring of His anointing will never stop as long as we make ourselves available for Him to fill us. The moment we think we are full or make ourselves unavailable he stops pouring in.

As this widow takes that oil, sells it, and fulfills the purpose it was provided for, we too need to use the anointing upon our lives to bless others around us. The Bible says, they not just had enough money to pay off their debts but also to live for the rest of their lives. That is the measure of anointing that comes from an unstoppable God.

If only we knew how unstoppable His love is for us and his thoughts thereof, we could also become unstoppable for Him

Are you game to become unstoppable for an unstoppable God?
Just give Him what you have!
